Chemical designation / Synonyms	Product description
Na2SO4 E 514 (i) oder (ii) Disodium sulfate	Sodium sulfate is a white or colorless sodium salt of sulfuric acid, which is soluble in water.  Sodium sulfate can be obtained from a natural source or by bringing about a chemical reaction.
Glauber salt (decahydrate)	In the food industry sodium sulfate is used as a carrier for colorants. Moreover, sodium sulfate is used in the areas of food supplements and pharmaceuticals.