

Chemical designation / Synonyms	Product description
NaHCO ₃ E500 (ii) Natron Sodium bicarbonate Baking soda Bullrich salt	Sodium hydrogen carbonate is a colorless or white sodium salt of carbonic acid. It occurs naturally and can be obtained by bringing about a chemical reaction. Sodium hydrogen carbonate can be used as an acidity regulator and leavening agent. Sodium hydrogen carbonate is used in the areas of foods, food supplements and pharmaceuticals.